do my job with a human touch by understanding the concerns, worries, emotions and attitude of every Member without hurting anyone and without allowing the smile to vanish from my face. In my previous stint, I have learnt a lot from the hon. Members and I have developed intimate understanding and rapprochement from all of you.

I hope and pray that these will prove to be an asset to help me to fulfil my responsibility to your expectations and raise the performance and dignity of the House to win the appreciation of the people, who are our masters.

I shall strive to ensure, under the guidance of hon. Chairman, that the House proceedings are conducted with efficiency and dignity, its rules are strictly followed and every Member gets the opportunity to express and to debate, within the time constraint. In this difficult task, I seek your complete cooperation, trust, confidence and understanding, and, above all, sympathy and love, if I may fail to please one and all. Let us set high standards of thinking and discussion, patriotism and commitment to help our great nation march ahead to usher in real freedom of economic development, education, prosperity and happiness for all.

Once again, I bow in humility and seek blessings of Almighty God to make my task and the mission of this August House succeed in flying colours. Thank you.
